SENIORS

Candid Seniors . . .

Danny McCloud, working on just one more term paper.

Jaylin Leonard, class secretary, flashes a smile for the photographer.

In the Child Care Center Brenda Lewis, Angela Greene, and Cheryl Dutton prepare for a career one way or the other.

Kathy Daniel prepares for a career in the secretarial field.

Senior Activities

The Senior Class officers are Eileen Edmonds, Brenda Jessen, Jaylin Leonard, and Carolyn Clark. This year they have planned and carried out the Powder Puff football game, sent flowers and cards to Seniors and teachers who have been in the hospital, and they have formed the Senior Ski Club. Some plans for the future are to have a Senior photo of the class in the shape of an "81", a gift for the school, and a Teachers-vs-Seniors volleyball game.

Mrs. Nan Pointer, Senior Class sponsor, always has a smile for anyone coming into her office. Mr. Don Sandridge is also a sponsor.

Showing a little lunch enthusiasm are Thelma Dease, Donna Pratt, Beth Knight, Doatie Knapp, Cindy Foor, Lynn Hall, and Jeff Lopez.

Guy Price knows that lunch is best when it comes from home.

Government is a favorite when you have Mr. Lewis.

#1 — In More Ways Than One

Lisa Williams, Pam West, and Marcine Brown show that school isn't all that bad.

Ross Gambill knows that research is no fun, but you learn a lot.

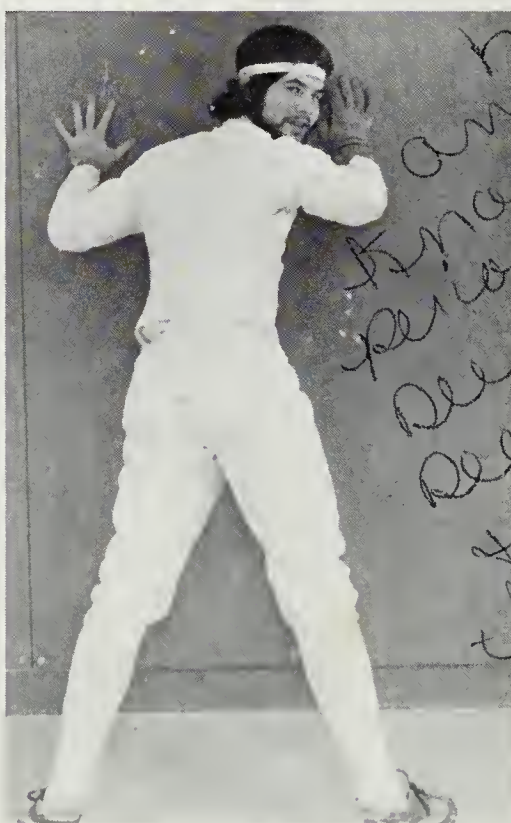

Can you guess what presidential candidate Mark Micklos and Richard Isner wanted in office?

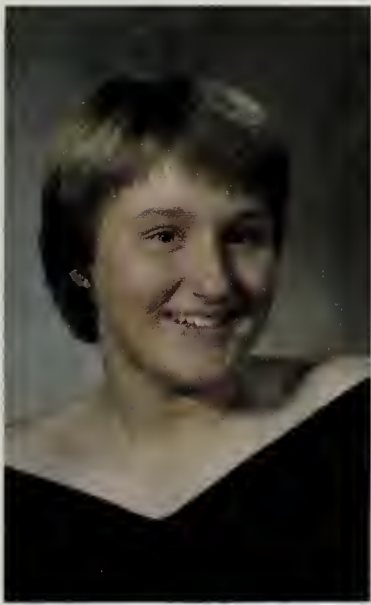

Gray Smith, Valerie Sidney, Jaylin Leonard, and Ronnie Sterling make Spanish IV a group project.

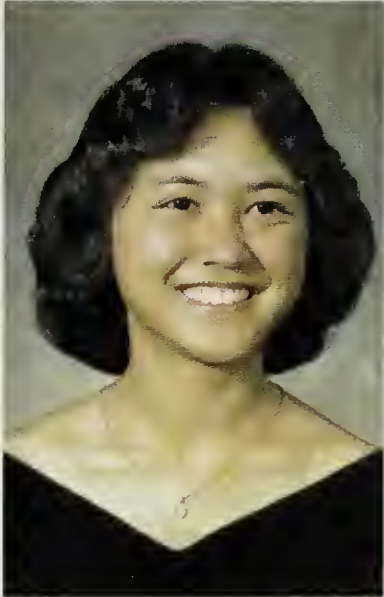

Who will hold the walls up when Mike Myers leaves?

Holly White, Heather Arnold, Sherry Hypes, and Kathy Daniels are always waiting; waiting for school to be let out.

STUDENT LIFE

SOCIABLE

Just 'cuz Jaylin, Gray, Ellen, Valerie, an Terri are seniors, that doesn't allow them to skip class.

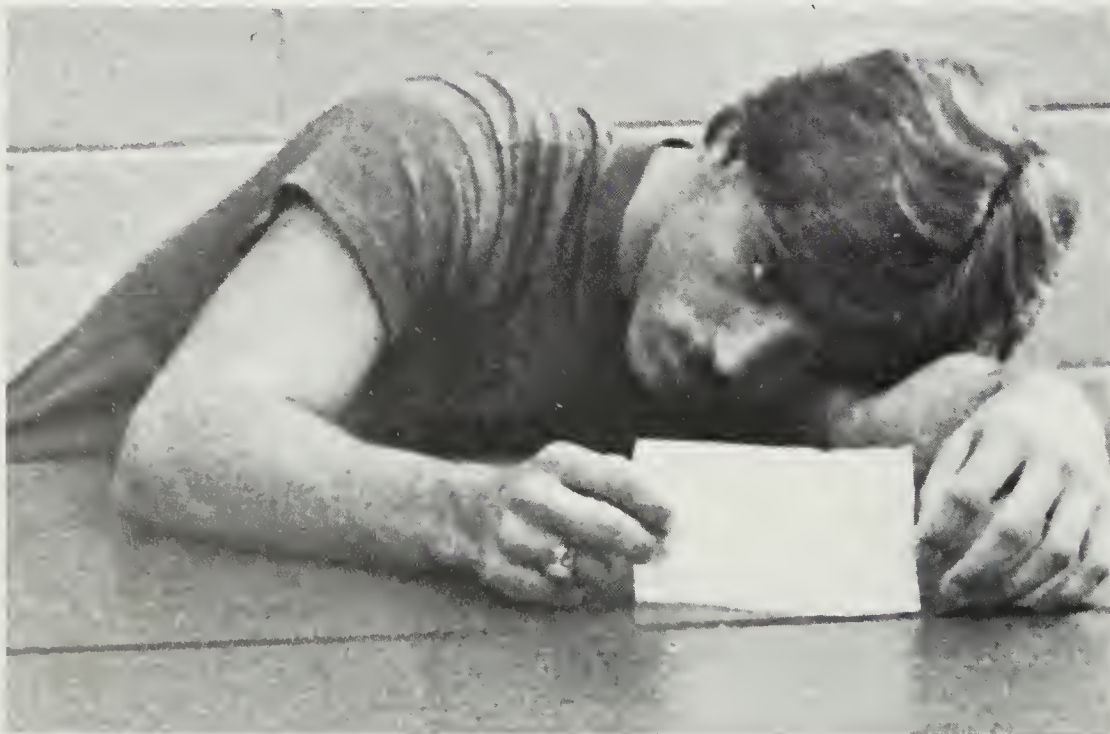

Dennie Fyfe in the latest Duke fashion of 1980-81.

The man of every girls dream - Mr. Wonderful himself, Kermit the Frog.

Bob Harris, "Gloucester High's Soul Man."

Mark Fowler gets another good progress report for the second time in ? years.

Charlotte Kemp wonders why everyone is standing up.

CIRCLES

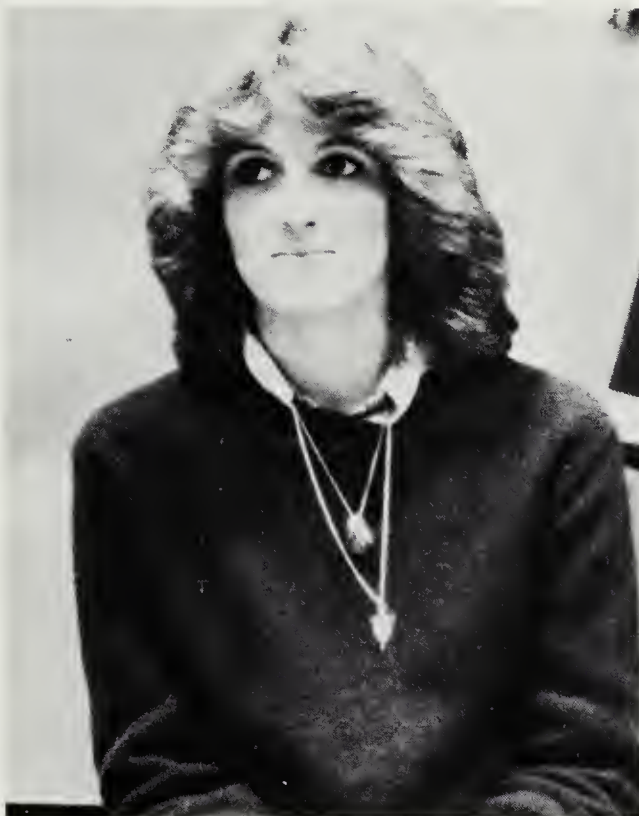

Ronnie Sterling appears to be overjoyed by a classroom discussion.

Kevin Stokes is definitely ready for lunch.

Sophomores seem to be wondering about their bird.

Julie Pratt awaits her "Mr. Wonderful."

Carla Thomas portrays an innocent cheerleader.

Steve Banks and Steve Bland seem to be all thumbs.

Homecoming Spirits Are . . .

In spite of the rain, Homecoming was a great success this year. The Gloucester Dukes beat the York Falcons in a close game of 7 to 6 and really made the day.

The freshmen won the best float and were followed by the seniors; the sophomores came in third, and juniors took fourth place. All of the floats held up beautifully in spite of the rain.

Julie Pratt was crowned Homecoming Queen, and she was escorted by Ricky Boothe. Marlena Colon was Maid of Honor and was escorted by Randy Hogge. Brenda Jessen was the Senior Attendant. She was escorted by Hank VanGieson. Terry Lewis was the Junior Attendant and her escort was Jay Hogge. Bette Ewell was Sophomore Attendant. Bette was escorted by Timmy Marshall. The Freshman Attendant was Christy Horsley. Paul White escorted Christy.

Julie Pratt sits calmly through the parade unaware that she is to be selected as Homecoming Queen.

Marlena Colon, Maid of Honor, rides in style.

Brenda Jessen and Hank VanGieson's spirits were bright during half-time festivities.

"Astonished" might sum up the feelings of Homecoming Queen, Julie Pratt, and her escort, Ricky Boothe.

Jay Hogge appears overjoyed for Terry Lewis, the 1980 Junior attendant.

The spirits of 1980 Sophomore Attendant, Bette Ewell, were not dampened by the rain.

Christy Horsley, 1980 Freshman Attendant, "suffered" through the rain to represent her class.

UNDAMPENED

The performance of G.H.S. marching band and squads was excellent in spite of the rain.

Travis Thompson was one of many who performed under difficult circumstances.

Debbie Hogge conducts the band during halftime.

Janis Burse catches a ride on the local fire engine.

Foreign exchange, Thalma Siqueira is from Brazil.

As one of the freshman mourners, Lee Davis rides along in the parade.

1980; A VICTORIOUS

Things are looking up for Jeff Carrington.

Who's more interested – Coach Shell or Steve Banks??

1980 CHRISTMAS

Mr. Spano's mind is on something other than practice for the Christmas assembly.

Mr. Loyd has the upper hand in directing the band.

Jerry Bell demonstrates his artistic ability at making noise.

The teachers reveal an intense concentration on their performance in the assembly.

Will Richards seems to find a humorous side in every situation.

ASSEMBLY

Will the real Santa Claus please sit down?

Tammy Myers marvels at her first High School Christmas assembly.

Bob Harris seems to have attracted an interested listener, Eileen Edmonds.

Travis "Peanut" Thomas gives us his sexiest pose.

On stage it's all smiles, but behind the curtains, Howard Cook, Brian Sharp, and Mike Gooding are caught with a look of concern.

Rings add a touch of . . .

Pamphlets and stones are seen in the display case for several weeks to help students choose the type of rings that they wanted.

On December 6, 1980, the long awaited class rings were presented to the Juniors who attended the Ring Dance. The music was provided by "Powerplay." This year the class president, Stephanie Rouse, and Vice President, Steve Banks, called the names of the Juniors to pick up their rings. After the Ring Ceremony, there was a special dance for Juniors and their dates. After the rings were accepted the "turning" began. Each ring is to be turned 81 times and then on the day of graduation the final turn number 82, is saved for that special person. Turning the ring the 82nd time ends many memorable moments of the final years of high school.

Members of Powerplay entertain the crowd at the ring dance. The music was enjoyed by everyone.

John Walters waits anxiously while a mysterious hand turns his ring.

Derek Bond and Marletha Ransom pose elegantly for the photographer.

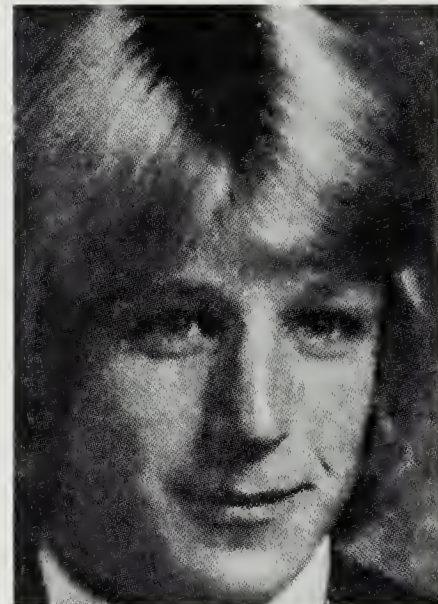

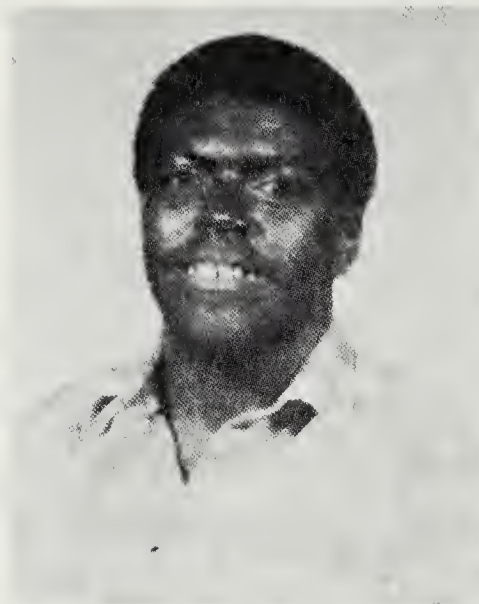

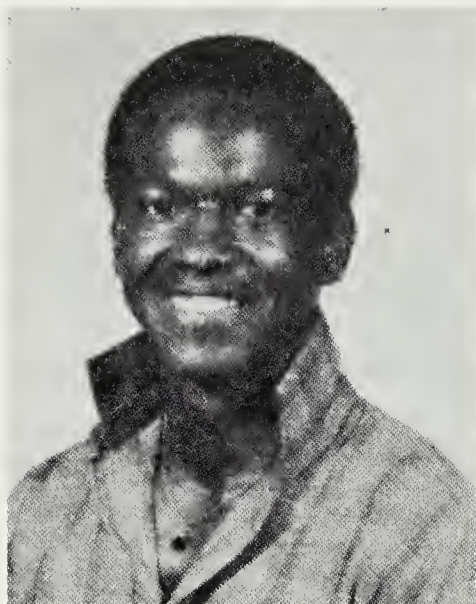

Teresa Lyeth and her date from West Point, Ralph Saunders, were too smart to let the photographer get by without giving him a smile.

Heidi German and Kenny Groom watch the ring dance ceremonies from a corner table with a great view.

In Memory of . . .

In the memory of Charles J. Adams and Kenneth J. Harris, Jr., who died in an automobile accident on November 8, 1980.

They will be sincerely missed by the students and the faculty at Gloucester High School.

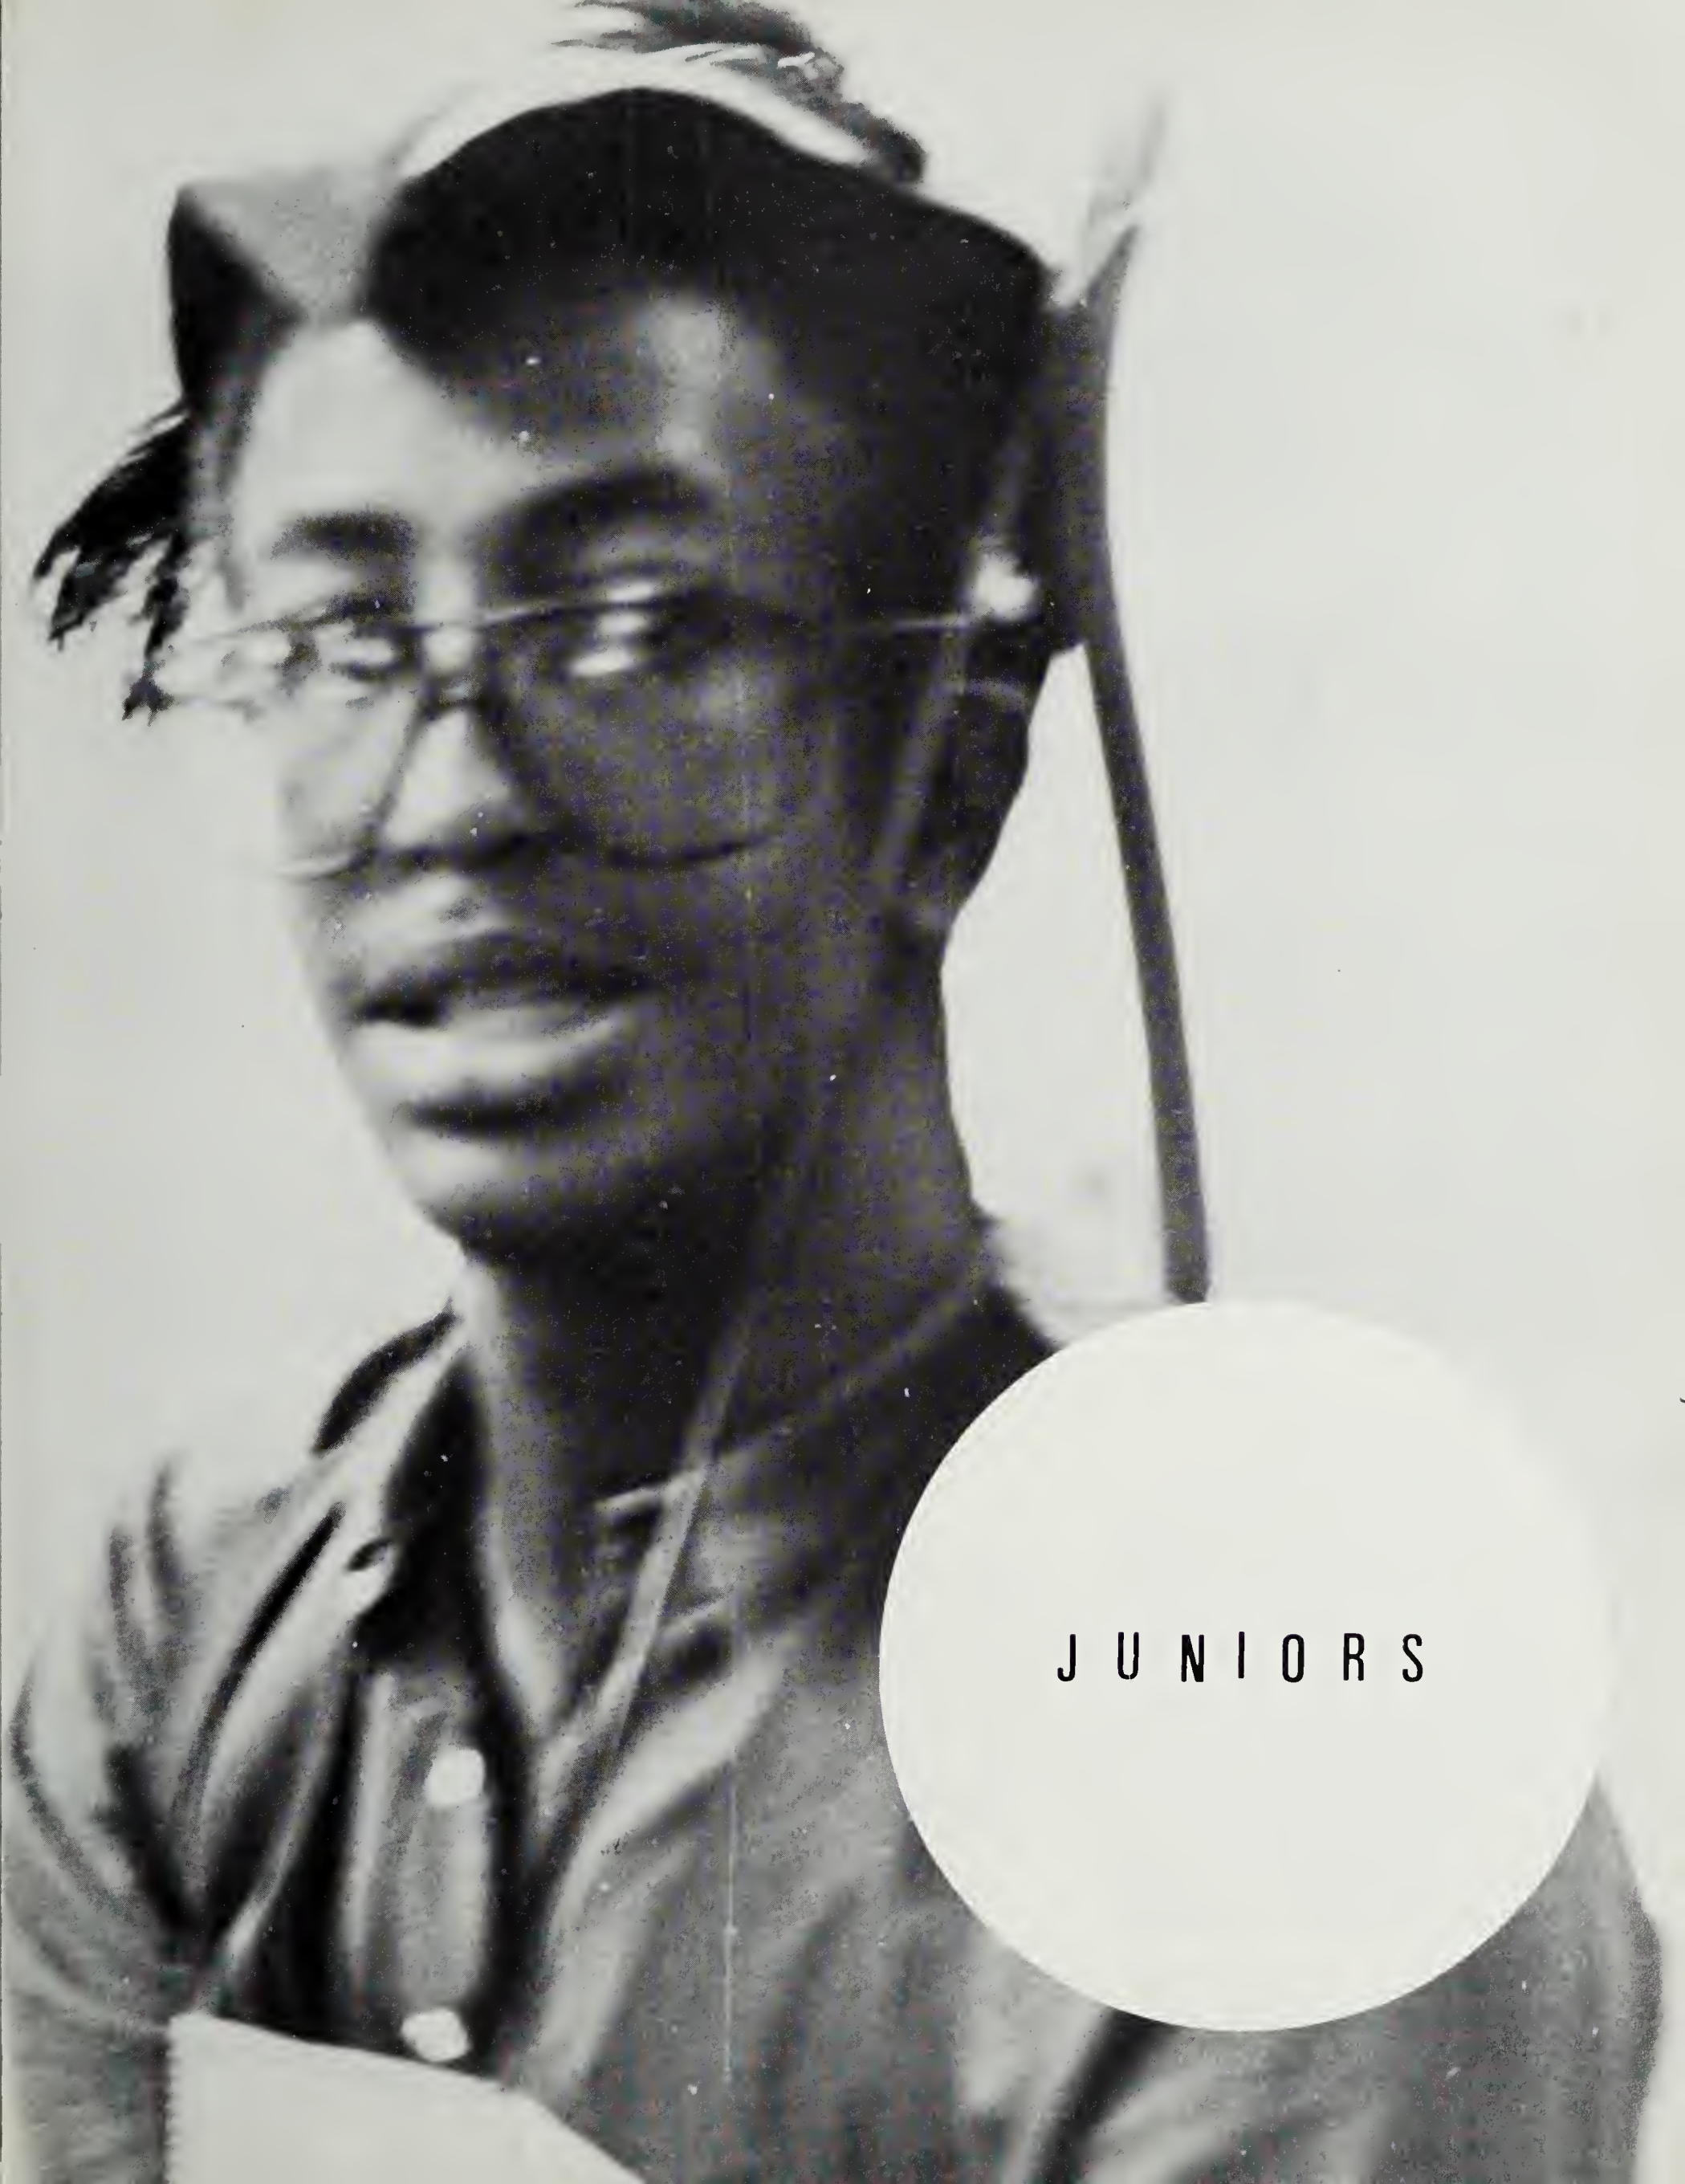

In the memory of Ernest Sowers, Jr., who died in an automobile accident on January 17, 1981.

Ernie will be missed by the students and faculty at Gloucester High School.

Life is so short for us,
That we carelessly take challenges
Beyond our ability.
Some challenges are small enough to conquer
Yet we sometimes get defeated,
In our goal to remain forever.

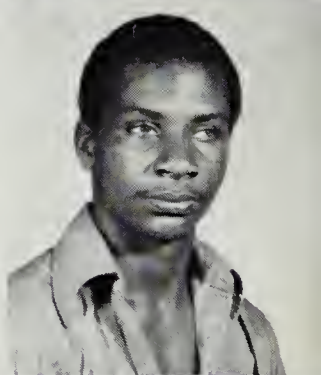

When the time comes for our defeat,
We fight but have to relent.
After we have gone, we are not forgotten,
But cherished and given a special place,
In the hearts of our survivors.

There are many extra responsibilities that a Junior Class must accept and accomplish. Two major dances — The Junior-Senior Ring Dance, held around Christmas time and the Junior-Senior Prom held in the spring must be organized. Suitable decorations, a good band, and food should be well planned. Money is a must in having a nice dance.

The juniors have worked extremely hard and been backed 100% by the class sponsor Mr. Zuger, who has done a fantastic job and deserves much credit.

The spirit of the class of '82 is clearly seen in how close they came to winning "Spirit Week."

The juniors have worked hard. With the hard times there are always good times. There was the Powder Puff Football Game — junior girls vs. senior girls, and Pep Rallies where we really showed our spirit; our participation in sports and clubs and the usual "getting together."

The juniors are ready for anything. Watch out everyone — we're coming through!

We are one of a kind!

We have come a long way juniors! (Margret Kirkland)

Harry Atwell isn't sure whether or not he enjoys Rusty Maybre's serenading.

Thalma Siqueira — A.F.S. Student

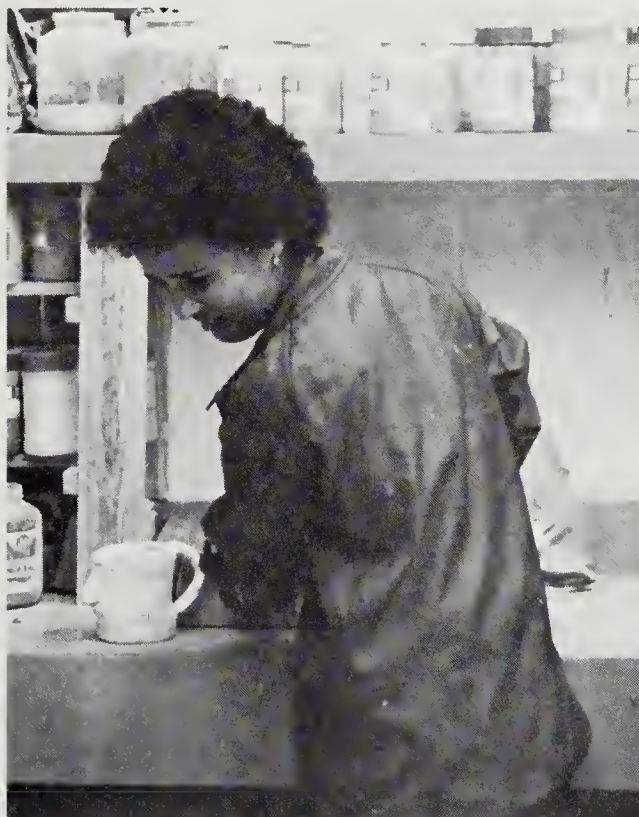

Thalma Siqueira is the 1980-81 foreign exchange student.

Gloucester High School's foreign exchange student for this year is 19 year old Thalma Siqueira, of Olinda, Brazil. Her student hostess in Gloucester is Annette Newton, who is a senior. This year at GHS, Thalma is taking English C.P.; Spanish I; Government, C.P.; Humanities; Art II and Typing. Thalma arrived in America on August 19, 1980. She comments on her arrival, "When I first arrived in the United States, I found it wasn't all I expected it to be. I used to think the U.S. was a really special place, but when I got here, I realized it was the same as any other country." Thalma will be leaving the U.S. sometime in June or July, 1981.

Mrs. Long, Thalma Siqueira, and Mrs. Pointer get acquainted at a reception for Thalma.

Thalma tries her hand at pottery.

Mrs. Hutchinson, president of the A.F.S. adult chapter, is delighted with Thalma.

A I A S A

The Industrial Arts Club is part of AIASA, the American Industrial Arts Student Association. AIASA is designed to develop the leadership and personal abilities of students as they relate to the industrial — technical world. Their goals are as follows:

AIASA promotes industrial arts in school, community, State and nation.

AIASA increases knowledge and broadens understanding.

AIASA provides leadership training.

AIASA inspires students to respect the dignity of labor and to appreciate craftsmanship.

AIASA assists students in making informed and meaningful occupational choices through exploratory experiences in shops, laboratories, and observations in business and industry.

AIASA motto: 'Learning to live in a technical world!'

... Could they be the builders of tomorrow?

SCIENCE CLUB . . .

The Science Club, sponsored by Mrs. Swihart and Mrs. Luhr meets the third Thursday of each month. Their purpose is to develop a keener sense and understanding of science through visiting areas depicting the various sciences. The club holds two bake sales each month. These sales supply the main source of revenue for the club. The officers of the club are as follows:

President: Richard Isner
Vice-Pres: Beth Knight
Secretary: Kim Char
Treasurer: Valerie Cook

CAVALIER STAFF

===== '81 =====

Tammy Seawell and Heidi German go about the tedious job of sorting name cards with a cheerful attitude.

This was a successful year for the yearbook staff. The class was larger than usual and consisted of 29 members. The staff was very organized, thanks to their new teacher, Mrs. Beth Hugate, and experienced Editor, Terri Redcross. The staff worked very hard and managed to meet all deadlines. The class was a success because everyone worked together by sharing and helping each other. A lot of effort, cooperation, and hard work went into this book and the staff members receive little recognition, so to everyone that made this book possible — THANKS.

Debate is the process where two or more individuals take opposing viewpoints on a proposition. They attempt to persuade others to accept or reject a solution to a problem. The affirmative team tries to prove that the problem cannot be solved unless their plan is put into effect. The negative team uses evidence to try to prove there is no problem to solve.

Debating is a different form of learning. It requires a good amount of reading and research skills. A good debater does not necessarily believe in his argument, but is able to argue both sides of the problem.

"The federal government should initiate and enforce safety guarantees on consumer goods" is the debate topic for 1980-1981. The Gloucester High School Debate Team will debate for more safety guarantees as well as against more government control. They will debate in the York River District, and to sponsor debaters in both regional and state tournaments.

The sponsor of the Debate Club is Ester Knox. She has sponsored this club for four years.

The purpose of the Art Club is to encourage those students who are interested in art and to help them achieve a better understanding of art and to its significance in our society. The Art Club also tries to enrich our school and community by bettering our visual environment.

This year the Art Club will do two major money-making projects. The first is to silkscreen designs or slogans for school clubs and teams. Our first phase in this project includes a design for the Art Club itself. Our second project probably to be accomplished in the spring is to make and sell mugs. Several members are learning to throw the mugs on the wheel this fall.

The Art Club also went on a field trip to Washington, D.C. to visit the National Gallery of Art in the fall. During the Christmas Holidays, the Art Club provided a Christmas Dinner for a needy family.

The Band performed at all home football games and the Pep Band at all home basketball games. They also attended the O.D.U. Marching Band Classic Field Competition, District VIII Band Festival and the Peninsula Area Band. During Spring break the "Marching Dukes" went on a trip to Florida and visited many popular tourists attractions. This trip was sponsored by G.H.S. Band Boosters Club, through various fund raising projects.

Drama Club

The Drama Club is the pool that drama productions draw talent from. Members are actors, ushers, and stage hands — important people to a play.

A Drama Club meeting is very informal. Members openly discuss plans for their latest plan to raise funds — a Sadie Hawkins dance. Proceeds go to finance the spring musical "South Pacific".

Most Drama Club members are involved in other drama activities. Many are enrolled in drama classes. Thirteen of the eighteen actors in the play "Our Town" were Drama Club members.

Mr. John Raynes sponsors the club as well as teaching classes on drama and directing drama productions.

The Drama Club is an active, creative club whose hand can be seen in G. H. S.'s many successful drama productions.

Jean Rowe, a Thespian member, practices her drama techniques.

The Fine Art of Music . . .

Choral Capers

The Choral Music Department is composed of five choral music classes or choirs containing over one hundred eighty students. The department's major purpose is to expose as many students as possible to good choral music through listening, learning and performance of all styles and types of music. Through these experiences they will be able to enjoy and foster music throughout their entire lifetime. The department not only has gained excellence and acclaim locally and state wide, but this year has blossomed on the national level.

The "Chorale" is composed of students in grades ten through twelve. The class is a training class for students who, within these grades, have had no previous choral experience or perhaps need more experience before moving into a more advanced class.

The "Ninth Grade Mixed Chorus," also a beginning chorus, is composed of only ninth graders. Due to the changing of voices and maturation, it is easier to work with this level in the same class.

The forty members of the "Madrigal-Swing Choir" are chosen by auditions and is one of two classes of more advanced choral students. This year the group has been invited and will perform for both the State Beta Club Convention in Norfolk, and for the First National Beta Club Convention in Orlando, Florida. This choir performs all styles of music from Madrigals to Show and Swing Choir literature in their many performances within the county and other parts of the State.

The "D'Otisingers" is a group of fourteen choral students who are selected through very strict auditions to form the top, honors, or most advanced class of choral students at Gloucester High. The group chose their name two years ago in honor of their director, Mr. Donald Otis Sandridge. The group performs not only with the Madrigal-Swing Choir, but is in constant demand within the school, county and State and nationally on its own for its musicianship.

The "Women's Concert Choir" is made up of thirty-six female voices which perform and concentrate on two, three and four part music written only for female voices.

This year the Choral Department set several records never before accomplished within the department. The Department's Christmas Concert was presented in the form of a Sacred Cantata and involved the entire five choirs. The performance was held at Union Baptist Church with an audience of one thousand one hundred sixty eight. This was truly a first, maybe for the county.

Dukes Button Up Opponents

The 1980 Duke varsity football team surprised a lot of people this year (maybe even themselves) by winding up with a 4-4 district record. Pre-season polls had them picked to finish last but the Dukes' spirit defied that. The highlight of this season was a 7-6 homecoming victory over York. Another bright spot was a 25-21 upset over previously unbeaten Tabb.

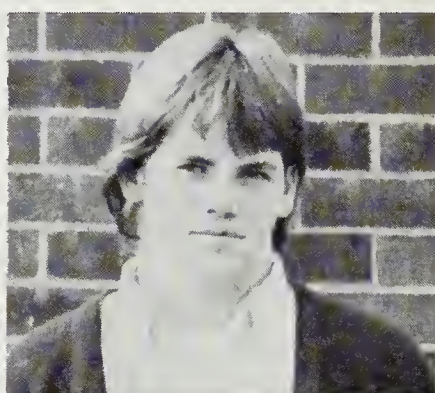

All in all, this was a very good year for the athletes and coaches who took the time and put forth a great effort.

To the outsider, the junior varsity (lady) basketball team had a losing season. Injuries and inside problems caused a lot of disappointment, resulting in a 0-10 record. First year coach, Mike DeWitt, had his hands full with inexperience. Half the squad was comprised of freshmen. At one time, four freshmen were starting. Despite this, the team made a good showing and the games were a lot closer than the score would indicate. The hustle and determination of the coaches and players made this season a success despite the record. This success was measured in the improvement of the team as a whole and the players individually. Two players, Toni Bolden and Blondell Whiting were promoted to varsity.

Blondell Whiting protects the ball from a New Kent opponent.

Tips for better basketball:

Know what a basketball looks like.

Know the rules. (No spitting, no hitting the referees, no tap dancing.)

Tie your shoes.

Don't guard someone wearing a bathing suit.

Never say "in your face" to someone bigger than you.

Play with a toothpick in your mouth only if you are very, very good.

Hustle, determination and coaching sums up the 1980 girls varsity basketball team. The Lady Dukes started off the season by making a good showing in the Tip-off Tournament. Although they lost to Bruton and Poquoson twice each, they made up for it by beating Tabb, York, and Mathews twice. The highlight of the season was a 55-49 upset of the state champion, New Kent. Coach Reggie Brown did a terrific job and the girls really hustled. All this has made this season very successful.

The Gloucester High soccer team would up the 1981 soccer season with a record of four wins, three losses and four ties. In the district tournament played at York, Gloucester edged Bruton 3-2 early in the day. In the championship game that afternoon, the Dukes went down 4-0. Despite that, Gloucester had a victorious season. This was measured by the fact that Mike Holland and Mark Clemets were voted to first team all district. Holland scored 48 career goals for the Dukes in his four years. Tripp Shannon, Billy Fletcher, Johnny Martin, and Tony Coulson were also honored with honorable mentions on the All District Team. Coach Olen Lewis stated that the fact that the play "was dominated by the center field" was a key to the Duke's success.

JUNIOR BOOTERS SUCCESSFUL

For the first time, a full junior varsity team competed this year. For the first time, eighth graders were allowed to participate. The soccer program is used as a continuation of a summer soccer recreation league. This year's team was coached by Colonel Friant.

WRESTLERS BUTTON OPPONENTS TO THE MATS

The Duke wrestling team finished the year with a disappointing 1-7 record. The grapplers had an abnormal lack of enthusiasm as far as support for them was concerned. Each match, the Dukes had to give up four or five forfeits a match. At six points a forfeit, it made it difficult for the team to get a decent team score. Some individuals did shine for Gloucester. In the regionals, Ken Spencer placed 5th and Jimmy Guy placed 4th. In placing fourth, Guy then went on to state. Although the team was plagued by forfeits, discipline and lack of support from the students, they did well with all these things considered. Coach Jon Bittenbender did an excellent job in his first year coaching at Gloucester. Though this season was not victorious, the talent returning should give the York District some tough competition next year.

The 1980-81 gymnastics team finished the year with a 5-2 record that included victories over triple — A powerhouses Denbigh and Pheobus. In the district meet, Gloucester placed second behind Tabb with a score of 86.34. The Dukes beat out defending champion Poquoson for second place. Dawn DeBolt took fourth in the all-around. Dennie Fyfe qualified for the regionals when she took fourth on the vault. In the regionals held at Tabb, the team of DeBolt and Fyfe placed the Dukes 7th from a field of 12 teams. Considering the pair competed in only four events, this was excellent. This was an excellent year for Gloucester and next year the team promises to be even better.

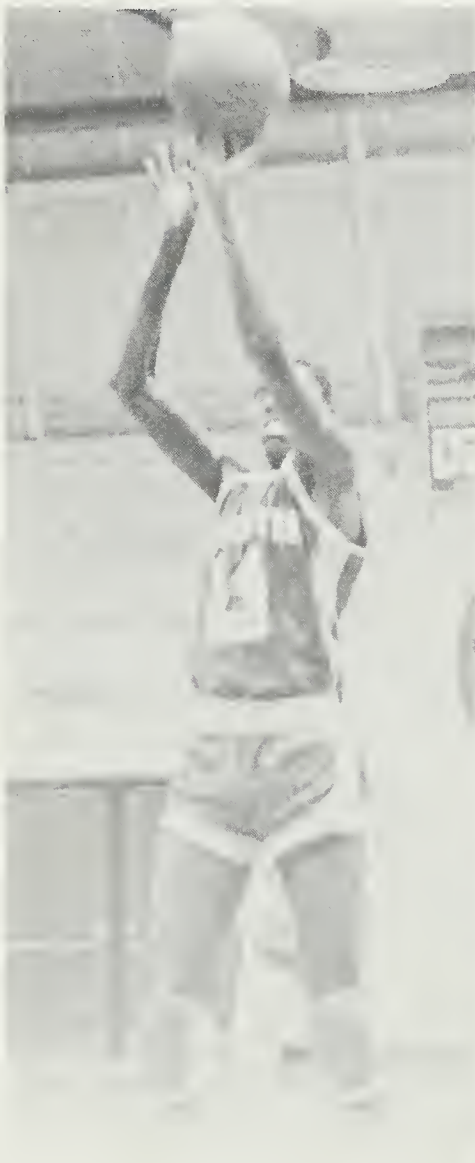

VARSITY BOYS BASKETBALL

The Gloucester High varsity finished the year with a 7-13 overall record and 3-5 in the district. The Dukes finished third in the district despite the fact that they were picked to finish last. Highlights of the season include a double conquest over arch rival Mathews. Coach Ed Holstrom was assisted by Ken Bunting, Henry Holmes and Mike DeWitt. The team did very well considering they had a 10-0 record to live up to. Sophomores Tommy Haskins, Jimmy Todd and Marvin Spencer complimented the senior leadership of Russell Robinson, and Jimmy Spencer as starters toward the end of the season. Coach Holstrom felt that the "seniors provided good leadership." He also stated that the sophomores and juniors gained experience for the future."

This team was captained by Robinson, Spencer and Kelvin Larrimore. At one time, Spencer led the district in scoring. Also, for the first time a freshman started a varsity contest. This freshman, who was Chuck Banks, proved instrumental in the overall progress of the team. Holstrom stated that his charges gave him their "best effort every time out — they really tried hard."

J.V. BOYS' BASKETBALL

The junior varsity basketball team finished the year with a disappointing 2-9 record. The jay vees opened up the season with a rout of county rival Mathews. Then they went on a four game skid, losing to all single-A schools. Then the Dukes went into their first district contest and defeated Poquoson. Next they beat New Kent but that was all the victories they could garner as they dropped every decision thereafter. After midterm exams, tryouts were again held to fill the gaps that were created when academics and promotions hit the team. First Marvin Spencer, then Jimmy Todd, and then Tommy Haskins joined the ranks of varsity. The Dukes had trouble getting familiar with each other after that as they dropped a 40 point game to York. The following week they suffered an embarrassing 60 point rout at the hands of Bruton. Although the scores were not pleasant, the team and coaches worked with a great intensity that showed in hustle and spirit. With the talent that remains from this team, and the upcoming of several players, fans can be assured that the Dukes will not suffer another season like this and brighter days loom ahead.

Seated: Tommy Haskins, Akram Ransom, Chuck Banks, Sammy Larrimore, and Jimmy Todd. Standing: Coach Mike DeWitt, Trent Berry, Jay Hogge, Holland Hart, Jerod Brown and Manager Kevin Larrimore.

Region Champs — Again!

Coach Yvonne Smith's 1980 edition of girl's field hockey continued their dominance of double-A competition as they won the AA Region 11 crown by defeating Midlothian High School 2-1 at the Intermediate School field. Midlothian, which came into the game with an undefeated and unscored-upon record, saw their hopes and unscored-upon record diminish as they ran into leading scorer Carol Williams. Carol's two goals paved the way for the 2-1 upset. Coming into the game, the Dukes also had an undefeated record. The only team to score upon them was York, who managed only one goal. Carol Williams was the leading scorer for the season with 14.

Before the season, Coach Smith felt that experience would be the key to success.

Hustle and determination also proved to be a factor in the Duke's continuing their dynasty. We would like to congratulate Coach Smith on her excellent team and all the time and effort she put forth into making field hockey a success at Gloucester.

We would like to congratulate and thank these eight seniors for doing their part in making field hockey a success at Gloucester. Their hustle and determination has shown through by their excellence on the field as well as off.

Seeing the Countryside

way

Running your guts out every-day isn't easy. Cross country means just that, across country. The runners run a rugged course with distances that are not included in regular track. This requires more than just running. It requires endurance and stamina, physical and mental strength. Under the coaching of Wendall Johnston, these athletes have not only done that, but have something to show for their efforts. Despite accumulating an 0-4 record, two athletes went on to shine in the district and region meets. Senior Nina Carter placed first in the district and region meets. She also came in 19 in the state. Sophomore John Pouchot came in 3rd in the district, 6th in regional and 34th in the state.

FIELD HOCKEY'S FINEST

To be an athlete at Gloucester High is certainly a very distinguished title. To be selected to the all-district team is even more distinguishable. The coaches of the York River District vote on the best athletes in the league for that particular sport. The best comprise the first team all-district team. There is also a second team, third team and honorable mention. The coaches also select a team for the region which consists of 32 schools. To make either one of these is quite an accomplishment. Below are 12 athletes who have been selected by the coaches as being good enough to compete with the top of the top. Although there are many other athletes who have received 2nd team and honorable mentions and we congratulate them wholeheartedly. These athletes reflect the integrity of the school, their coaches and themselves.

It Was a Very Good Year

The '81 Cavalier Staff had a very successful year. Four experienced members, Terri Federass, Susan Morgan, Lisa Oliver, and Robin Hall, returned to help 28 novices turn out a yearbook to be proud of.

As the year of 1980-1981 was an election year and buttons reflected many ideas, we too chose buttons to mirror our thoughts.

The staff would like to extend a special thank you to Mr. Brian Berg for his help with photography and publicity. The faculty too is thanked for their cooperation and support when it was necessary to take pictures and when it was necessary to release yearbook members from class to complete deadlines.

We dedicate this '81 book to the Senior Class. Every effort was made to make your "last" yearbook one to cherish.

Terri N. Federass, Editor
